MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

STAT

SUBJECT: Debriefing of [Redacted]

1. On 6 March 1956 the subject, a stenographer assigned to the Operations Section, Project AQUATONE, was security debriefed by the undersigned.

2. This debriefing was occasioned by subject's resignation from CIA scheduled for 9 March 1956. The resignation has officially been accepted "for maternity reasons."

3. [Redacted] was informed that her separation from CIA and Project AQUATONE does not, in any way, release her of the obligation to safeguard all information previously furnished her, i.e., Project existence, its mission, equipment and capabilities. She was further instructed that should the Project receive any publicity in future newspaper articles or on radio and television she should not, in any way, display personal knowledge concerning detailed Project activities. She stated her thorough understanding of the personal responsibilities involved and assured the writer that all matters of confidence previously entrusted with her would never become a matter of personal violation.
